First indicate your agreement with "The agreement document". Then fill in the five personal information fields. Save your password somewhere you will be able to find it again. When you are satisfied with your entries, click on the OK button. If there are errors in your entries, a warning will appear on screen when the registration program cannot accept an entry. Make corrections and click OK to submit the corrected entry. When the entries are all correct a confirmation box will appear asking if you are sure; click the OK Button to continue.

This is the last page of the registration. It lets you review what you have submitted, but you can not make any additional changes. Click OK, exit the registration page and wait for an email from the D-Star local Administrator with your registration approval.

After you receive the email from the local D-Star Administrator approving your registration, return to the registration page.

Using the boxes to the right enter your callsign (Upper Case Required) and the call sign you registered.

Then click the "Login" button.
